AISG moves locations in Cleveland, Ohio

College Point, NY - April 3rd 2017 - American Integrated Security Group (AISG), North America's fastest growing full service security integrator, is proud to announce the transition to a new office in Brooklyn Heights, a suburb of Cleveland, OH, to properly serve the rapidly growing customer base in Ohio and the Midwest. The Ohio office is one of six AISG regional offices across the United States.

AISG's new Ohio office allows AISG to meet the increased demand for security solutions and services ranging from energy to healthcare, and everything in between. Bill Hesketh, a Cleveland native and former senior Air Force leader with more than 20 years of experience in management, will head the newly expanded office.

"We're thrilled to have Bill onboard and equally excited about our ability to continue to serve the Midwest through our new office," said AISG President, Levy Acs. "The need for a bigger office is simply a byproduct of the increased demand for top-of-the line full service security solutions in the Midwest."

Headquartered in College Point, NY, AISG has regional offices in Florida, California, Texas (2) and our newest addition in Cleveland, Ohio, located conveniently at:
